

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, South Dakota is the most agricultural state in the nation, and;

WHEREAS, the raising of livestock is the acknowledged backbone of the state's agricultural economy, and;

WHEREAS, cattle numbers in South Dakota as of January 1 of this year were 4,238,000 head -- the highest in the state's history, and;

WHEREAS, the sale of livestock and livestock products in South Dakota during the past year exceeded $561 million and represented 71 percent of the state's total cash farm receipts, and;

WHEREAS, realized net income from agriculture averaged $4,904 per farm in South Dakota this year, 15 percent above the national average, and;

WHEREAS, the inventory of all livestock in South Dakota amounts to over $725 million, thus providing a high degree of tax support for local, county and state governments as well as school districts of South Dakota, and;

WHEREAS, the livestock industry has produced a proportionately high number of outstanding leaders for every aspect of life in South Dakota from territorial days to the present, and;

WHEREAS, the South Dakota Stockgrowers Association is embarking on its 75th year of continuous service to the livestock industry of the state, and;

WHEREAS, this Association and its Auxiliaries, the South Dakota CowBelles and Junior Stockgrowers, have vigorously promoted increased consumption of beef, thereby demonstrating the self-help characteristics of the industry and contributing to the good health of the nation's consumers, and;

WHEREAS, this Association and its members have been consistently in the forefront of struggle to keep the livestock industry free of needless government subsidy and control, and;

WHEREAS, its energetic support of the free enterprise system and its devotion to "grass roots" government gives real meaning to the state motto, "Under God, the People Rule," and;
